WINTER
EXHIBITION
2011

VIVA CUBA

This Film directed by Armando Alvarez and Roberto Lores highlights the life and culture of the Cuban people, and will be shown as part of the exhibition.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

"Treasures From another island" is an exhibition of 8 Cuban painters and sculptors, whose works come from a wide variety of genres, styles and schools, by artists spanning various generations.

A mixed bag of work, then, but united by a common characteristic that has drawn the interest of the general public and art experts from around the world: artistic quality. Here, then, is a sample of the contemporary work that has made Cuban visual arts an outstanding feature of the cultural landscape of the Caribbean and Latin America.

This time it is not the pirates of myth and legend, or of swashbuckling films of pillage, who pierce the dawn in Barbados. Rather, for the enjoyment and admiration of those who know how to appreciate another kind of dawn, we welcome to these shores, thanks to Limegrove, these dazzling Treasures From another island.

ABOUT THE GUEST CURATOR

Marilyn Sampera Rosado (born Havana, 1966). Masters Degree in Art. Curator and specialist in Cuban and Caribbean art.

The success of the exhibitions she has curated has earned her prestige and respect amongst the community of artists and specialists in the museums, galleries and various institutions in Cuba and the other countries in which she has built a solid reputation as a curator and gallery expert.

Her MA thesis Contemporary Sculpture in the Dominican Republic is currently being edited for publication.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

These 8 painters and sculptors have collectively produced works that offers this exhibition of avant-garde art from another island, Cuba. In doing so, they have showcased a sample of the richness and diversity of contemporary Caribbean art for those who wish to look beyond preconceived stereotypes of the region and its inhabitants.
